3. Section A - Cancellation and cutting your trip short

We will pay for unused travel and accommodation costs that you have paid or are contracted to pay, if you have to cancel or cut short your trip because of: death, serious injury or illness of you, a travelling companion or a close relative; you being called for jury service; your home being made uninhabitable by fire, storm or flood; or redundancy.

We will not pay if you cancel because you no longer want to travel, or because of a pre-existing medical condition you did not tell us about.

4. Section B - Emergency medical expenses

We will pay up to £10,000,000 for emergency medical and hospital treatment, and the cost of bringing you back to the UK if our medical advisers agree it is necessary. You must contact our 24-hour emergency assistance line on +44 20 0000 0105 before being admitted to hospital, or as soon as possible if this is not practical.

We will also pay £25 for each complete 24 hours you spend in hospital as an inpatient abroad, up to £500.

5. Section C - Personal baggage and money

We will pay up to £1,500 for loss, theft or damage to your baggage. The most we will pay for any one item, pair or set is £300, and for all valuables in total is £400. We will deduct an amount for wear and tear.

We will pay up to £500 for loss or theft of your personal money, of which no more than £300 can be cash. If you are under 18, the cash limit is £50.

You must report loss or theft to the police within 24 hours and get a written report. Baggage lost by an airline must be reported to the airline before you leave the airport, and you must get a property irregularity report.
